Dr. Haijing Tu
Assistant Professor
Department of Communication

Dear Dr. Tu,

Thank you for being a panelist for the Don't Leave It to Chance: Increasing Student Success in Statistics session during our Jumpstart January professional development series. Your willingness to share your expertise with others is such a gift to the faculty and staff on this campus. We recognize the amount of planning and hard work these presentations require, and it means a great deal to us that you so generously supported the Faculty Center for Teaching Excellence and helped make our second Jumpstart January a huge success! We are sure this was due to the quality of our presenters and the rich content that was shared.

Once again, thank you for generously sharing your time and talent with the Indiana State community.

Sincerely,

Molly Hare
Director – Faculty Center for Teaching Excellence
Associate Professor – Health and Human Services
